

40 Years in the Making

Building a school community through dialogue between children, families, teachers and materials

Join us for a day of dialogue as we reflect on some of what we have been learning in our 40 years of working with children and families and 20 years of taking inspiration from the schools of Reggio-Emilia

$40 for 6 hrs. of professional development

(home-cooked lunch by our chef Beth!)

Registration forms available at:

www.coopfamilycenter.org 541-346-7400

Tour classroom environments, hands-on experiences, dialogue with other educators, listen to Co-op teachers sharing some the most impactful stories and experiences from their work with children that have shaped their identity as teachers.

WHEN: May 4th, 2019 9:00 am-4:00pm

WHERE: The Co-op Family Center, 2250 Patterson St. Eugene, OR. 97405

Together, we will explore the possibilities for creating early childhood experiences that takes shape through democratic participation of everyone in the school community.

